8. [redacted] Talked to Miss Fran Christy, House Immigration and Naturalization Subcommittee staff of the Committee on Judiciary, who told me that the Committee will not be making formal requests for reports on [redacted]. She would appreciate, however, a copy of whatever report was furnished to the Senate Committee. Further action on the bill in Committee will await the meeting to be arranged by the Committee Counsel, Mr. Cline, for me with Representative Rodino (D., N.J.) after Mr. Cline's return from Europe around 20 May. 25X1

9. [redacted] Met with Mr. Richard Barton, House Employee Benefits Subcommittee staff of the Post Office and Civil Service Committee, who told me that Chairman Hanley, Mr. Hogan, Mr. Martiny and himself had had an enjoyable visit at NSA today. He also suggested that he wait until we have made our contacts with the various members of the Subcommittee before he attempts final scheduling of a "Subcommittee meeting" at the Agency. 25X1

10. [redacted] Returned to Miss Angie Morris, Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff, the classified documents that were held for Mr. Lowenstein during his absence from the country. 25X1

11. [redacted] In connection with possible pacification hearings by the House Foreign Operations and Government Information Subcommittee, spoke with staff members Vincent Augliere and Norman Cornish and learned that, in all probability, the hearings will be open session unless classified information is discussed and that the hearings on pacification by the Subcommittee have not yet been given the green light. [redacted] has been advised. 25X1
